

Local Medical Examiners

Aviation Medical Exams or also known as Flight Physicals are done by an FAA approved Medical Doctor. The exam is available either as a first, second or third class. It is valid for one year except the third class which is valid for 3 years when you are under 40 and two years over 40. An expired first and second class automatically will be transformed in to a third class after the one year period.

Which Medical do I need?

Third Class: For a Private Pilot License

Second Class: For privileges of a Commercial Pilot

Third Class: For privileges of a Airline Transport Pilot
